& Reconciliation SA Present:

WALKING TOGETHER Workshop

Join us to champion a movement where all Australians walk together to construct a better future.

6:30-9PM | THURS, 27TH JULY

ADELAIDE PAVILION | VEALE GARDENS, SOUTH TERRACE ADELAIDE

FACILITATED BY NICOLE LAUPEPA AND JACQUI PARKER

Connecting the past with the present and the present with the future, this interactive workshop facilitates knowledge, understanding and a sense of purpose for non-Indigenous Australia to walk together with First Nations peoples.

With the Uluru Statement from the Heart as a framework, this workshop paves the way for participants to accept the invitation and confidently walk together. Together we will find ways to take meaningful and appropriate action in the journey of reconciliation and gain a deeper sense of who we are as a Nation.

This workshop is a platform to provide relevant information leading up to a Referendum. Why referendum? Referendum is necessary to alter the Constitution to recognise the First Peoples of Australia by establishing an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Voice.

NICOLE LAUPEPA AND JACQUI PARKER

With the Uluru Statement at its heart, Nicole and Jacqui have created a stimulating and pertinent workshop that speaks to non-Indigenous Australia about what we need to do right now to accept the invitation to walk together.

Their relationship and energetic dynamic exemplifies this, and their ambition is to pass on this incredible opportunity and skill-set to others so we can better Australia.

These women have been friends and collaborators since 2018. Nicole, a First Nations woman, and Jacqui, a second-generation Holocaust survivor, have drawn on their commonalities, skills and friendship to create a truly special synergistic alliance.

Both women have a deep belief and love in the human spirit and as such have a strong sensitivity to issues that unfairly impact on communities.

Nicole comes from the lands of the Gomeroi people, and from the Murri Gubbi clan of the Kaputhin moiety of the Madhaa skin group. Currently a senior leader with Youth Off The Streets, Nicole's expertise is in early intervention, child protection, out-of-home care, homelessness, domestic and family violence, alcohol and other drugs, as well as criminal justice.

Jacqui has vast experience as an educator, holds a Master in Social Science and a deep awareness of culturally responsive practice.

Their life experiences and world view has powered their collaboration on the Walking Together Project.
